Daisy

Ink on Paper

Instructor: Jackie Poirier

Mount Boucherie Secondary School

This picture was inspired by the Switchfoot song “Daisy”. Daisy, in the song, is a metaphor for people and all that people want. The chorus of the song says, “Let it go, Daisy let it go, Open your fists This fallen world, It doesn’t hold your interest, It doesn’t hold your soul, Daisy let it go.” The image is all about widening your scope and looking at the bigger picture; Letting go of our simple minded “wants” and experiencing real life.
